Year 2 History
How has Healthcare Changed over Time?

In this topic you will:
- Learn who Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole were.
- Reflect on the impact that Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole had on healthcare.
- Discuss the changes between healthcare in the past and present day.

A Timeline of this Period in History

1820	Florence Nightingale was born.
1837	Queen Victoria became Queen.
1838	Slavery was abolished in Jamaica.
1853	The Crimean War started. Mary Seacole sailed to England, hoping to volunteer.
1854	Mary Seacole was born.
1856	The Crimean War ended
1881	Mary Seacole died.
1901	Queen Victoria passed away and her reign ended.
1910	Florence Nightingale died.

Key Vocabulary

The Crimean War	A period of change from a rural to industrial landscape.
Healthcare	Providing medical care to people.
Medicine	A product given to someone to help treat an illness.
Hygiene	Practices, which prevent disease and encourage cleanliness.
Disease	An illness or sickness that has specific symptoms.
Impact	The way something or someone affects something else or changes something.